Your traditions, your celebration, your menu

The Glasgow Westerwood Hotel, Spa & Golf Resort offers a beautiful setting for self-catered weddings just outside Glasgow. With peaceful countryside surroundings, generous event spaces and a team experienced in supporting multicultural celebrations, it is an ideal venue for Sikh, Hindu, Muslim and Jewish weddings.

We understand that food is one of the most important parts of any wedding celebration. Our self-catered wedding packages are designed to give you flexibility, with access to dedicated kitchen facilities and the option to work with your preferred approved caterer. We can also recommend trusted catering partners if required.

From your first enquiry through to the day itself, our dedicated wedding co-ordinators and events team will work closely with you to understand your plans, traditions and priorities. Whether you have a clear vision or are still shaping your ideas, we will help bring everything together in a way that feels thoughtful, seamless and bespoke to you.

We offer dedicated packages for self-catered weddings, with the flexibility to tailor the details around your celebration. Our team would be delighted to discuss what you have in mind and help create a wedding day that is truly personal to you.
